

Academic Costumes

The wearing of academic costumes is a custom that goes back to the Middle Ages. Since the early European and English universities were founded by the church, the students and teachers were required to wear distinctive gowns at all times. Although the custom was brought to this country in Colonial days, the requirement for students was soon dropped. The custom for professors was confined to special occasions such as graduating exercises and inaugurations of new presidents. With the increase in the number of educational institutions and the development of new subject-matter fields, some confusion arose in time about the type of gown and the specific color to denote various degrees. To introduce desirable uniformity and set up a clearing house for new developments, a commission representing leading American colleges produced The Intercollegiate Code in 1895. In 1932, a national committee of the American Council on Education revised this code into The Academic Costume Code. It was revised in 1959. Although not obligatory, most of the educational institutions in the country follow it in awarding their degrees, earned and honorary.

The most significant part of the academic dress is the hood. The color of its velvet border indicates the academic field, and it is lined with the color or colors of the institution granting the degree. The hoods of those receiving a Master of Arts or an honorary degree of Doctor of Letters have those same color indications, but each successively higher degree carries with it a longer hood. The doctoral hood also has side panels on the back.

Although most doctoral gowns are black with black velvet bars and panels, in some cases the color of the gown is that of the university conferring the degree. All such gowns have black bars and panels.

Academic fields may also be indicated by the color of velvet on the doctoral gowns; three two-inch bars on the sleeves and a five-inch border extending from the back of the neck down the two sides in front. For the degree of Doctor of Philosophy the color is dark blue; for Doctor of Medicine, green; for Doctor of Education, light blue; for Doctor of Science, golden yellow. These colors also appear in the velvet of the hood unless the hood represents an honorary degree. The Doctor of Laws has purple velvet. The Doctor of Humanities is white, as is the Doctor of Letters. The Doctor of Public Administration has a hood with velvet in pale aqua.

Caps are black. Tassels are usually black for bachelor's and master's degrees, gold for doctorates. Gowns for bachelor's and master's are plain black, but sleeves of the latter are short with trailing "elbows." Doctoral gowns of European universities are usually very colorful. The caps are often of some soft material like velvet and are ordinarily not of the conventional mortar-board shape. Several examples may be seen in the university faculty:

Arts, Letters, Humanities—white	Medicine—green
Commerce, Accountancy, Business—drab	Music—pink
Education—light blue	Nursing—apricot
Engineering—orange	Philosophy—dark blue
Fine Arts—brown	Physical Education—sage green
Journalism—crimson	Science—golden yellow
Law—purple	Social Science—cream
Library Science—lemon	Theology—scarlet
	Veterinary Science—gray

Commencement Profiles

Dr. Ronald G. Eaglin became the 12th president of Morehead State University on July 1, 1992. Bringing nearly 30 years of experience in higher education administration to the MSU post, he previously was chancellor of the University of Coastal Carolina in Conway, S.C.

A former vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of South Carolina's Spartanburg campus, Dr. Eaglin began his career in higher education administration in the area of student life/housing and has taught both in public school and university settings. In the early 1970s, he served as southeast regional director of the American College Testing Program (ACT).

He holds a bachelor's degree in biology and mathematics from Southeast Missouri State University, a master's degree in student personnel administration from Southern Illinois University and a doctoral degree in educational psychology from the University of Utah.

A graduate of Leadership South Carolina, he has been active in the NCAA President's Commission and is a former vice chairman of the Big South Athletic Conference (Division 1). Active in the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, President Eaglin is a member of its Board of Directors and has served on numerous AASCU committees, including chair of the Committee on Academic Affairs in 1989. Currently, he is participating in a three-year national student retention project being undertaken by AASCU and funded by the Student Loan Marketing Association.

He frequently serves as a consultant and often presents workshops for colleges on student retention, leadership and academic advisement. Dr. Eaglin also chaired a Fulbright High Commission delegation which presented a seminar on accreditation and self-study for higher education representatives in Cyprus.

A member of several honorary societies such as Psi Chi and Phi Delta Kappa, Dr. Eaglin also is active in his community. As president of MSU, Dr. Eaglin serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Morehead-Rowan County Chamber of Commerce. A member of the Kentucky Council on Higher Education's Conference of Presidents, he was appointed by Gov. Brereton C. Jones to the East Kentucky Development Roundtable, an advisory working group to the East Kentucky Office of the Cabinet for Economic Development, and to the Kentucky Appalachian Task Force, which was established to develop a comprehensive plan for the state's Appalachian region. He also is a member of the steering committee of the Central Appalachian Alliance, a partnership of energy and land holding companies with universities in Kentucky and Virginia.

He and his wife, Bonnie, have four adult children.

James Dustin Rose of Flatwoods, a graduate student who will receive his Master of Business Administration degree today, is the student speaker. A Raceland High School graduate, he earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting from MSU in 1993 after transferring from Ashland Community College. At ACC, Rose was president of Phi Beta Lambda business fraternity, the 1991 Honor Student of the Year and the Man of the Year in 1992. He also served as head of ACC's Student Appeals Board.

A graduate assistant with the M.B.A. program, he has been a member of MSU's Accounting Club. Employed by Ashland Plaza Hotel from 1990 until this fall, he began his work there as a bellman and rose through the ranks to manager.
